

Seton Hall Breaks Giving Day Record! Thank You!

The entire Setonian family rallied once again on behalf of students for Seton Hall's fourth annual Giving Day celebration, which took place on April 20-21. The fortitude displayed during the initiative resulted in 1,700 donors, which is a significant increase over last year, and a record-breaking total of more than $422,000.

Meet Our Donors

Phyllis C. Dunlop, MBA '90

Phyllis Dunlop's Seton Hall journey began when she started working in the University's Advancement Office in 1984. A desire to help today's students realize what their education not only means to them now, but what their Seton Hall experience will mean in the future, led Phyllis to include the University in her estate plans.
